CONGRESSIONAL PROCEEDINGS.

The Wyoming Admission Bill
Goes to the President.

A California Murderer Sentenced To Be Hanged.

Congressional Matters.

WASHINGTON, July 9.—Presiding Officer Ingalls annexed his signature to the bill for the admission of Wyoming, and it now goes to the President for his signature.

On motion of Blair, the Senate proceeded to executive business.

The doors were reopened at 1 o'clock, when the Sundry Civil Appropriation bill was reported by Allison, who stated he would ask its consideration to-morrow.

The consideration of the conference report on the Silver bill was resumed, and Cockrell continued his argument against the report.

The Sundry Civil bill as reported to the Senate to-day by the Appropriation Committee carried an appropriation of $31,241,080, an increase of $3,181,060 over the original bill reported; $6,552,- 172 less than the estimates, and $5,944,338 more than the bill of last year.

The most important feature of the work of the Senate Committee on this bill is the elimination of the appropriation of $774,000 for the irrigation survey. This provision was vigorously attacked by a number of Western Senators, and they succeeded in defeating it in committee. The opposition was based largely upon the grounds that the effect would be to reserve from the public domain a vast amount of public land which should be open to settlement. The appropriation for the topographic and geological surveys, however, was increased from $200,000 to $300,000.

It is provided that half of this sum shall be expended west of the 101st meridian, and that so much of the act of October 2, 1888, as provided for the selection and location of reservoirs and canals upon public lands and reservations of irrigable land, is repealed, provided the reservoirs and canal sites heretofore located or selected shall remain segregated and reserved from entry or settlement until otherwise provided by law.

The Senate in executive session confirmed the nomination of General R.
N. Bacheiler for Quartermaster-General of the army.

HOUSS.

Hitt of Ill., from the Committee on Foreign Affairs, reported back the resolution requesting the President to furnish the House the correspondence between the Government of the United States and Great Britain, touching the subject in dispute in Behring Sea since March 4, 1889. After some debate the resolution was adopted.

Latest From Eastern Asia.

SAN FRANCISCO, July 9.—The steamship Gaelic arrived this morning, twenty-four days from Hongkong and fourteen days from Yokohama.

The Japan Mail states that a rumor was prevalent that Russia had seized an island on the coast of Corea, and that her Majesty's ships Leander and Severn were under orders to keep up-der and be ready to proceed to sea at a moment's notice if required.

The steamship Tainang, from Hongkong for Shanghai, which went ashore at Swatow on June 6th, was gotten off and repaired, and was expected at Hongkong on June 12th.

The first elections for the House of Peers under the new Japanese Constitution took place on June 23d, some 44 members being returned. Twenty-two of these are farmers by occupation, fifteen are merchants and only one a noble.

At Osaka, Japan, 59 people were drowned on June 15th during the launching of a new sailing vessel. The occasion excited considerable interest, and about 250 people crowded on board the boat. The owner, Mr. Kino, however, became apprehensive and ordered 100 of them ashore. When the launch commenced it was ebb tide, and, as the ropes used in securing it were too short, the vessel keeled over. The people on board immediately rushed to the other side, which had the effect of turning the vessel completely over, and those on board were precipitated into the water. A terrible scene ensued. Those on the shore rendered every assistance possible, but their efforts were generally unavailing.

Fifty-five bodies have been recovered.
Four persons are still missing, and about twenty are more or less injured.
The vessel was found to have had her bottom badly damaged.

An Eastern Cyclone.

WHITE HALL, N. Y., July 9.—A cyclone did considerable damage at Plattsburgh last night; no details yet learned, as telegraph communication is entirely cut off. The report that the bluff point hotel on Lake Champlain is blown into the lake, is untrue.
The hotel escaped and no guests were injured.

ROUSE POINT, N. Y., July 9.—At 3:30 P. M. yesterday, this point was visited by the worst wind and hail storm ever known, demolishing houses, trees, and upsetting things generally.
A few moments before the storm, which came without warning, the steam yacht Niles left for the Vermont shore, and when a mile out, the storm struck her and she went down.
Captain George Clark, his son and engineer Hill, were drowned. It is feared there were other casualties, as several fishing parties on the lake are not yet heard from.

A Wyoming Geyser.

WASHINGTON, July 8.—Late this afternoon Secretary Noble received the following dispatch from Superintendent Bontell, at the Mammoth Hot Springs, Wyoming: "This dispatch has just been received from Norris Basin: At 4:15 P. M. there was a severe shock of earthquake, followed by a terrible roar, and a geyser called the 'New Crater' had an eruption. It is throwing a column of steam, stones and water about 200 feet in circumfer-ence to a height of about 125 feet, and shaking the whole basin around that vicinity."

Frightful Loss of Life.

MUSCAT, July 9.—A terrific cyclone prevailed here and in the adjoining country. Great damage was done in the city and the surrounding country.
Many houses, both here and on the plantations, were demolished, and the loss of life is appalling. The reports thus far show that over 700 people are killed.

Bowden To Be Hanged.

EUREKA (Cal.), July 8.—Charles H.
Bowden, convicted of the murder of Mrs. Lily M. Price last January, was this morning sentenced by Judge Hunter to be hanged on the 5th of next month. A motion to appeal was entered.

Hot Weather.

NEW YORK, July 9.—A hot sultry morning, somewhat tempered by a light breeze. The thermometer at 10:30 indicates 85 in the shade. Half a dozen cases of heat prostration are already reported.

LOVERS' STATIONERY.

A London correspondent of an American paper writes: A fad in writing paper is what is called lovers' stationery. It is a fine note paper delicately tinted, the most fashionable shade being light pink. The water-mark, to be detected by holding the sheet up to the light, is a blending of two hearts pierced by an arrow. In the lower corner of each fourth page (or reverse of each second half sheet) appears what at first sight looks like a blemish.
But this is the charming feature of the novelty; it is the kissing spot, for here the correspondent presses his or her lips, and thus a salute is waited to the absent lover. The kissing spot is about the size of a shilling (twenty-five-cent piece) and is covered with a thin aromatic gum that imparts a pleasing odor and taste. A more ingenious bit of mail in sentimental could hardly be devised, yet we must all confess that is of just such innocent and insane follies that the joy of human life largely consists.

Severe Wind Storms.

CLEVELAND (O.), July 9.—The wind storm which swept this city last night was the most severe ever experienced. The advance of the storm seemed to be a number of sharp quick gusts that wrecked chimneys, blew down trees and sent everything moveable through the air.

Its coming was shown by a cloud of dust a hundred feet high, which obscured the sun and made the streets as dark as midnight. Not a single object could be discerned fifty feet, and dust filled the eyes and sifted into the clothing, and breathing to those on the streets was impossible without a handkerchief pressed to the nostrils. Then came rain in rushing swirling sheets that beat down many plants and caused exceedingly heavy loss to crops.

In every part of the city large trees were uprooted and the damage to the docks of the old river bed will amount to at least $80,000. Telegraph and telephone companies lost a number of wires, while the service of the fire and police departments were nearly wrecked. Half a dozen yachts inside the breakwater were blown adrift.
Several houses in course of construction were so badly twisted it will be necessary to rebuild them.

VERGENNES (Vt.), July 9.—A terrific wind, rain and thunder storm passed over Vergennes last night, doing great damage. Hundreds of shade trees were blown down. At Ball's Bluff, N. Y., nine men are reported drowned in the storm. The damage was very large.

NEW YORK, July 9.—The manager of the hotel at Champlain Bluff, Lake Champlain, telegraphs the Associated Press that the reports of the damage done by the storm at the Hotel Champlain were much exaggerated.

C. S. Griffin of Buffalo, N. Y., was drowned from the capsizing of a boat.

A Double Tragedy.

PORTLAND (Or.), July 8.—Charles H. Hewitt, a well-known attorney of this city, was shot and killed at Sellwood to-day by Charles Belgrade, the proprietor of the St. Charles Hotel at Sellwood. Belgrade, after the shooting, committed suicide by cutting his throat from ear to ear with a razor.

The immediate cause of the shooting can not be learned, as the men were alone when the quarrel occurred. It is supposed, however, to have grown out of a divorce suit now pending between Belgrade and his wife, who was represented by Hewitt.

Last night the two men were drinking in Clayton's saloon, opposite Bel-grade's hotel, and both are said to have been under the influence of liquor. Hewitt was 43 years of age.
He leaves a widow and considerable property. Belgrade has been a well-known character about the city for a number of years and is said to have borne an unsavory reputation.

Fatal Railroad Collision.

BIRMINGHAM (Ala.), July 9.—A disregard of orders caused a collision between a freight and passenger train on the Louisville & Nashville Railroad forty miles south of this city this morning. Five people were instantly killed and one fatally injured. The killed are: Engineers John Webb and John Green, Firemen Armstrong (colored) and Bob Wilson, and a pump man named Parr. Ben Swope, a colored extra fireman, is fatally injured.
None of the passengers were killed, and, as far as can be learned, none were seriously injured.

The passenger train had orders to sidetrack at Clear Creek Station for an extra freight, but the order was not obeyed, and a mile beyond the station the trains came together in a deep cut.
Both engines were broken to pieces.

A Large Bank Note Issue.

BUENOS AYRES, July 9.—The President of the Argentine Republic has authorized the issue of bank notes to the amount of a hundred million dollars for the purpose of relieving the financial situation. The rejection of the proposed sterling loan has caused great excitement on the Bourse.

A Letter Carrier's Strike.

LONDON, July 9.—The carriers of the Central Post Office struck to-day.
Delegates were appointed to interview Postmaster-General Raikes, and sending a reply, the carriers struck and all deliveries in the district are suspended.

When the delegation arrived at the office of the Postmaster-General they found he was absent. They saw the sub controller however, and stated their demands to him, but he informed the delegation he was powerless to reply on his own responsibility.
The delegation informed him that the carriers had decided not to resume work until they could receive a reply from Postmaster-General Raikes himself.

LONDON, July 9.—The letter carriers of the Eastern Central Post-office struck this afternoon. There is much excitement about the office, which is in Whitechapel. The police are guarding the buildings.

National Teachers' Gathering.

ST. PAUL, July 9.—The National Educational Society re-assembled this morning. The first paper of the day was from a special committee on Psychological and Pedagogical Observation, presented by George P. Brown of Ill., Chairman. Dr. W. T. Harris, Commissioner of Education, read another paper on the same subject. Professor Charles de Garmon of Normal, Ill., read a report on special inquiry in relation to instructions in will training.
Superintendent W. H. Maxwell of Brooklyn, N. Y., presented a paper on "Examination as Tests for Promotion."

Caught His Man.

NEW YORK, July 9.—Edward M.
Doyle, a contractor, charged with forgery and obtaining money under false pretenses in Oregon, was brought chained into police headquarters today by Detective Day of Portland. He had chased him many thousands miles.
Day is en route to Oregon with his prisoner.

The Lottery Bill.

BATON ROUGE (La.), July 9.—The Senate, by a vote of 23 to 12, postponed action on the lottery bill and veto until 12 o'clock to-morrow as a special order, one of the pro Senators, Smith, being absent.

Should be More Careful.

The platform which will be presented to the Pennsylvania Democratic State Convention denounces unequal apportionment of districts for the election of congressmen. In view of the snake fence boundaries of the Democratic gerrymanders in Ohio and South Carolina, this is pretty rough for the Pennsylvania Democrats.
They may have their opinion about the tricks of their political bedfellows, but a decent regard for the credit and interest of the party should prompt them to more careful expression.

RESTORED HER HEALTH.

and other blood affections, taking during that time great quantities of different medicines without giving me any perceptible relief. Friends induced me to try S. S. S. It improved me from the start, and after taking several bottles, restored my health as far as I could hope for at my age, which is now seventy-five years.

Change Partners!

In the mazes of the dance the direction to "change partners" will sometimes require one to surrender to another the partner of one's choice, and join hands with one who is not liked so well. Something of this experience is now being visited upon our Senators. Jones is amiable and genial. His "suaviter in modo" will be equal even to the exigency of enduring the icy embrace of Edmunds. But our venerable Steward is not so plastic, and we can imagine his profound disgust at feeling his robust silver waist encircled by one of John Sherman's yellow attache, and being whirled away from his beloved free-coinage partner, and danced unwillingly around the four and one-half million ounce ring to the sombre and saddening music of

"Let not conscience make you linger; Nor of fitness fondly dream."

For now come Senators Vest of Missouri and Coke of Texas, with a prospect of the solid South following in their train, and, denouncing the bullion purchasing bill as mono-metallic trickery, they aver that free coinage shall not be reached by their help unless it is reached by the air-line route.

This unexpected movement on the part of the Democracy may be inspired by devotion to free coinage, but the general verdict will rather be that it is an exhibition of partisan tactics, born of a desire to gain a partisan advantage from the silver contest.

We confess ourselves inclined to look with dubious and questioning glances upon a silver bill that is championed by John Sherman. "Beware when the Greeks make presents" is a wise as well as an ancient maxim, yet there does not appear to be any enemy in the stomach of this wooden horse. It is obvious now that free coinage cannot pass the House this session. It is equally obvious that the proposed bullion purchasing bill, which will absorb four and a half million ounces of silver per month, is much better than the present bullion-purchasing bill, which absorbs only two million dollars per month. Whether the new bill if passed will or will not permanently and rapidly advance the price of silver is something which we think no man can certainly predict. Many friends of silver think it will work an advance, while others are not so sanguine. But no harm and much good to the silver cause may result from giving it a trial. If silver advances under its work-lugs, so much will be gained. If it does not advance, then at least the experiment will have been tried, and the free coinage men can point to the failure of such experiment as evidence that it is useless to trifle with a question which can never be settled until it is settled rightly by the restoration of free and unlimited coinage. We shall find no occasion for being disgruntled if the Democratic supporters of free coinage now antagonize the conference bill, but we could wish that they would support that bill and then from the vantage ground it will afford, immediately renew the fight for free coinage.

In Conclusion.

The Enterprise should not suffer its zeal for its friend to lead it, even inadvertently, into an injustice to others. Senator Teller was not the only silver Republican who from the beginning antagonized and denounced the bullion redemption clause in the House census bill. Senators Jones and Stewart were both swift and emphatic in their exposure and repudiation of it as a piece of mono-metallic trickery, even while it was pending in the House Coinage Committee, and before it was reported to the House, and Senators Plumb, Wolcott, Ingalls and Paddock also sharply criticized it.

We do not doubt that Congressman Bartine intended well from the beginning, and any gentleman is liable to make mistakes, and he has been all right of late, and "All's well that ends well."

Demonetization by Contract.

John Sherman got in his work after all. He caused to be inserted in the Conference bill, at the end of that clause which makes silver certificates a legal tender for all debts public and private, the words "unless where otherwise stipulated in the contract." This reserves to all irreconcilable gold bugs the right to demonetize silver by private contract, and we dare say that many of them will avail themselves of it, and insert in all farm mortgages hereafter made such provisions for gold payment as will ring the debtors' noses down to the usurers' slaughter block—unless those miners who discovered the alleged six thousand million dollar gold deposit at Tin Cup, in Colorado, last week shall revolutionize our finances, in which event Wall Street will probably set up a howl for the demonetization of gold.

We remember a note drawn by an old citizen of Washoe county in the early days of the war, which read as follows: "One year after date I promise to pay for value received to the order of—the sum of—dollars in gold coin of the United States of America, or its equivalent in the gold coin of such Government as may at the maturity of this note exist in the territory now known as such United States."

Shortly afterwards the Provost Marshal was looking for the payee of the note, in order to employ him in filling in with sand the chuck-holes in the fortifications at Fort Churchill. But the cautious capitalist heard of the inquiry and concluded to take his summer vacation in California for that year early in March.

FROM DISTANT SOURCES.

Of the total vessels launched in England in 1889 over ninety-seven percent. were of steel.

A VERY large letter was mailed recently in Bechuanaland. It weighed 238 ounces, and the value of the stamps on it came to $53.

NEWSPAPER autographs are very valuable. The other day a sale of autographs in London & characteristic letter, written by Sir Isaac, fetched £23, being bought for Trinity College, Cambridge.

A CURIOUS character in Paris is a man who makes his living by strolling along the boulevards and making wagers with men at the cafes that he can answer correctly any question that related to the history of France. He always wins the bet, it is said.

THE German court is just moving into a splendid new palace at Potsdam. Emperor Wilhelm has had an electric railway constructed for bringing the dishes from the kitchen to the state dining-room. The reception and ball rooms will be the finest in Europe.

THE revolver caused more than one hundred deaths in England last year, including murders, suicides and accidents—a large increase over the number for 1888. Some of the English newspapers fear that this indicates an approach of cowboy manners.

THE astronomers of the Paris observatory are in trouble over the projected building of a railroad near their establishment. They say that the earth tremblings caused by passing trains will make their observations useless. They will try to have the Government order a change of the route.

A FRENCH millionaire spending the winter at Nice a few weeks ago ordered a coffin of a special pattern and purchased ground in a cemetery, upon which he had a vault built under his personal supervision, with room for three coffins. "I want room enough to be quite at ease," he said to a friend who asked him why he made it so large.

THE Americans who are exploring and excavating in Mesopotamia have every reason so far to be satisfied with the results. At Niffer, the Nipur of the ancients, they have laid bare the temple of Bel—a very fine one—and have found inscribed tablets which date back to about 3,750 B. C., and at Ur, in the great temple library, they have discovered many inscribed tablets, cylinders and bricks of first-rate religious and historical importance.

THE Esquimaux of Greenland can now boast of a newspaper. It is called the Reader, and the editor thereof, one Lars Moeller, sets up and prints the paper. He also designs and engraves the illustrations, which, it may be explained, are not remarkable for excellence. His printing establishment was only a makeshift, but the members of a Danish literary society, having heard of Moeller's difficulties, sent him new type, printing ink, paper and a larger press than he has been using.

THE largest telescope in the world, erected at Ealing, in England, has just been made, single-handed, by Mr. Common, the astronomer. Its whole mass weighs nearly twenty tons. The enormous iron cylinder which forms the tube is twenty feet long and eight feet in diameter, resembling the ordinary boiler of a stationary engine. Inside this is delicately distributed some ten tons of pig iron, the whole instrument going to form the most wonderful machine which the planet possesses. Through Mr. Common's telescope it will be easy to see no fewer than fifty million stars.

The muscles became contracted so that his leg was drawn up and he could hardly walk. We tried everything we could hear of, without success, until we began giving him Hood's Sarsaparilla. In just a month, after he had taken two-thirds of a bottle, the sores entirely healed, his leg is perfectly straight, and he

An Old Soldier's Story.

In the late war I was a soldier in the First Maryland Volunteers, Company G. During my term of service I contracted chronic diarrhoea, since then I have used a great amount of medicine, but when I found any that would give me relief they would injure my stomach, until Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy was brought to my notice. I used it and will say it is the only remedy that gave me permanent relief and no bad results follow. I take pleasure in recommending this preparation to all of my old comrades, who, while giving their service to their country, contracted the dreadful disease. I did, from eating unwholesome and uncooked food. Yours truly, A. E. Bending, Halsey, Ore. For sale by Shoemaker & Co.

Unpleasantness Avoided.

Several months ago, Mr. Henry Plummer of Clements, Cal., who is subject to cramps, was taken with a severe attack. He had been accustomed to get relief by doing with morphine, but the disagreeable effect that followed would make him miserable for hours after the cramp had been relieved. I persuaded him to try Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. He was much pleased with its effect as it was almost instantaneous, and no disagreeable after effects accompanied its use. Chas. Hanson, Manager, Farmers' Trade Union, Clements, Cal. For sale by Shoemaker & Co.

Arthur Love, Manager Love's Funny Folks Combination, writes: "After a thorough trial and convincing evidence, I am confident Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption beats 'em all and cures when everything else fails. The greatest kindness I can do my many thousand friends is to use them to try it. Free trial bottles at W. P. Wiggins' drug store. Regular sizes 50c and $1."

JUSTICE COURT.

The Arm of Justice Busy Clearing the Calendar.
At 2 p. m. yesterday the case of Henry Meyers came up for hearing, and, after quite a number of witnesses had been examined, both for the State and defendant, His Honor pronounced Meyers guilty, and remanded him for sentence at 10 a. m. to-day, when he was fined $30, or 15 days in the county jail.

The assault and battery case against William Brady, arrested on a warrant issued by Mr. Smiley, whom he had prevented from his wife, whose face he had cut and battered, came up before the Police Court this morning. The testimony was quite explicit, and showed that young Brady had been summoned by the six-year-old boy of Mrs. Smiley, who, weeping and harrowed, had tried to summon help for his mother. Entering the apartment he found the woman prostrate on the floor, with the man choking her windpipe with one hand and the other hand over her mouth. Brady rescued the woman, and had to give Smiley a thorough beating to accomplish it. After the testimony was all in Judge Young made the following remarks: "Mr. Brady, you are honorably discharged. As for you, Mr. Smiley, any man who will beat and abuse his wife deserves a worse beating than you have gotten. If it were within the letter of the law as it is within its spirit, I would hold you for raising the disturbance and cruelly beating the woman you have sworn to love, protect and cherish. Any man who raises his hand to a woman except in kindness is unworthy the name."

The numerous audience gave a subdued medium of applause, which the Court sternly silenced, and filed out, manifestly pleased at the decision.

William Morman and Frank Herzog, arrested last night for disturbing the peace, satisfied the sanctity of the law by paying a fine of $10 each; after which they were released, and they intend in future to keep quiet.

A SLEEPER ROBBED.

By a Pair of Toughs, Who Were "Pulled" In.
For ten days past a stranger about 27 years of age, named Rudolph Hoggelman, has been stopping at the Pyramid House, and becoming reduced in circumstances, the proprietor charitably allowed him to spread his blankets in the front ground floor room lately occupied as a tailor shop. After he retired last night two strangers of German extraction came in through the rear side entrance, and without permission, bunked there also for the night.

This morning Hoggelman, on awakening, claimed that his silver watch worth $6.50 and a razor worth $1.50 had disappeared with the echo of the footsteps of his quondam comrades. Special officers Mershon and Baugh were notified, and the pair were found near the first National Bank. On the person of one was found the missing razor, but the watch was not. The chain was hanging to his vest, however, and he partially acknowledged having soaked it. Both being under the influence of liquor at even that early hour of 6 a. m., they were caloused, to be formally introduced to Justice Young at 1 p. m. to-day.

BITTEN BY A RATTLESNAKE.

A Verdi Man Receives a Bite on the Hand.
Last evening about 6 o'clock a man by the name of Charles Baker, who was at work on a wagon road about three miles north of Verdi, was bitten by a rattlesnake, whose fangs entered his hand between the thumb and first finger. Baker walked to Verdi, where ammonia was applied externally and whiskey internally but as his wound continued to swell, he was brought to Reno this morning and placed in the County Hospital, where Dr. Lewis attended him.

The doctor stated this afternoon that, although Baker was in a precarious condition, he would undoubtedly pull through all right.

The Dangerous Toy Pistol.
The Virginia Chronicle of the 8th inst. says: On Sutton avenue this morning a boy accidentally discharged a toy pistol, the bullet from which cut a furrow in the back of a companion's neck. Had the missile struck an inch further forward the shot would have been fatal. The names of the shooter and his victim were not ascertained. Reports of shots fired from toy pistols in various portions of town are frequent, and the youthful shooters should be suppressed before a tragedy results.

Candidate for State Printer.

J. E. Eckley of Virginia City, who was elected State Printer of Nevada at the time of Governor Blaisdell's second election, will go before the Republican State Convention this year for a second nomination for the same place. Mr. Eckley is a thorough, practical printer, and as it is not presumable that Mr. Harlow will expect to hold onto that office for another term, Mr. Eckley ought to stand a good chance for the nomination, for there can be no question as to his ability or integrity.

Restored to Consciousness.

Frank Orsavan, who in the Carson jail last winter, fractured his skull by falling the side of his cell, and who ever since has been in an unconscious condition, was recently operated upon by Dr. Leo Carson and Dr. Brigham of San Francisco and restored to consciousness. Several pieces of broken skull were removed.

Tardy Government.

A special detail of troops have completed the work of setting headstones over the graves of General Custer's brave band who fell in the battle of the Little Big Horn, June 25, 1876—fourteen years since. It should have been done in less than fourteen months.

A PISCHE HERMIT.

Who Is Probably a Fugitive From Justice.
For three months past, says the Pische Record, a strange man has lived in a tunnel or dugout on the east side of the limestone mountain over the head of Meadow Valley St. within view of the Bullionville road. He is rarely seen, but is said to be tall and heavily bearded. The dirt from his excavation is thrown up in the form of a barricade at the entrance to the place, where he has a double door with two small windows or peep holes. When first noticed some time ago he was observed nursing or bathing one of his legs as though wounded. His actions are decidedly suspicious. Who and what is he? Is he wanted anywhere?

1,500 MILES.

But She Got It—A Sample of Letters Daily Received.
Only those who have tried it can know what it is that prompts one to send 1,500 miles for it to get it again. Here is another of many such instances:—
Dear Sir: I send $5 for which please return a half dozen of your vegetable sanaparilla. I have moved here from Sierra City, Cal. I took three bottles before leaving, hence I send all the way back to California for more. It was just before I left Sierra City, about a year ago, that I began to feel very miserable. My skin was very yellow, and I was all pains and aches, especially under my shoulders and in my head. The doctor said it was my liver, and gave me some medicine which relieved me somewhat. One of my neighbors happened in and told me she had started to take Joy's Vegetable Sanaparilla, and advised me to try it. I did, and with such good effect that I now feel like a new being. I have persuaded one of my neighbors here to take it, so part of this is for her and part for myself.

MRS. GEO. DELBRIDGE, Butte City, Montana.

The reader, who has not tried it, has no idea what the vegetable juices in this remedy will do for disordered systems.

No Land on which the Sun Shines.

Possesses greater natural advantages than our own, but there are portions of our great grain-bearing West and fertile South where atmospheric influences prejudicial to health militate against them, in some degree, as places of residence. Heavy rainfall and the overflow of great rivers, which upon their subsidence leave a dark vegetation exposed to the rays of the sun, there breed malarial fevers, and there also the inhabitants are periodically afflicted with some medical safeguard against the scourge.

The most popular of these is the Stomach Bitters, a preventive that has for over thirty years afforded reliable protection to those whose experience in the fertility or ordinary remedy for fever and ague has taught to substitute for the weather intermittent and remittent, malarial fevers are conquered and averted by the superb and anti-periodic and fortifying medicine as they are in no other preparation in use. Use it, and abandon impure and unhealthy habits.

Advice to Mothers.

Mrs. Winkler's SORREL SYRUP should always be used for children's teething. It soothes the child, softens the gums, allays pain, cures wind colic, and is the best remedy for diarrhoea. Twenty-five cents a bottle.

STANLEY'S NEW STORY.

Leading Points of Interest in the Forthcoming Book on the Emin Pasha Expedition.

Stanley's new book "In Darkest Africa, and the Quest, Rescue and Retreat of Emin, the Governor of Equatoria," will be issued by Scribner's Sons in July, and is to be published simultaneously in the English, French, German, Spanish, Italian and Swedish languages. A great deal of the illustration has been done by American artists from photographs taken by Stanley and other members of the expedition.

Probably the most interesting portion of this latest narrative, and, according to Mr. Stanley, what will be his last, is that portion of it which refers to what is supposed to be an entirely new race of men, the dwarfs of the great forest region. They are minutely described, and illustrations are given of the King and Queen of the pygmies, also of many individuals and groups, dwellings, costumes and hunting and fishing implements, and of their instruments of war.

Another striking incident in the record of Stanley's discoveries is the chapters relating to the finding of the "Mountains of the Moon," heretofore vaguely described, and considered mythical by later travelers. The great Aruini forest, with its tropical vegetation and rubber trees, exceeding those of the Amazon forests, will interest scientific men, while an equally great surprise will be the description of the lake regions of fertile uplands on the equator, where white men can live, and which Stanley predicts will become the future granary of Africa. This region has a temperate climate, rich soil, luxuriant grasses and fruits, and is inhabited by "classic-faced peoples" entirely different from the tribes of the Congo.

Geographers and scientific men will be interested in the story of his exploration of Lake Albert Edward, which he skirted on the west, north and east shores, solving one of the remaining problems in African geography. The book will contain a vivid description of the horrible cruelties practiced by the Arab slave traders and ivory raiders, who have desolated thousands of miles of that productive country.

No other member of the Emin relief expedition is allowed to publish any account of the trip until six months after the appearance of Stanley's book. All through his work Stanley has endeavored to emphasize the idea that Africa is waiting to be civilized, and he has given many tangible proofs that the interior regions and peoples of the mysterious continent are open to civilization and are worth the effort.

Walter Morton is the general agent for Washoe county, Nev., for the above book.

A SUDDEN DEATH.

A Carson Lady Dies from Unusual Excitement.
The Carson Tribune of the 8th inst. says: About 9 o'clock last evening Mrs. W. D. Keyser passed away suddenly to the great unknown, and the distress of her husband and children can better be imagined than expressed.

For about a year Mrs. Keyser has been ailing from time to time with a choking sensation. Some asserted that it arose from stomach trouble and others said it was caused from heart failure. Dr. Brigham, a noted San Francisco physician, who is spending the summer at his cottage on Lake Tahoe, came to Carson yesterday to assist in an operation upon Frank Craven, and at the request of relatives and friends, called at the Keyser residence to make an examination of the deceased lady in order to ascertain if a disorder was of the heart. Mrs. Keyser was sitting with her daughter and friends on the porch, apparently in better health than for months, and when the doctor arrived, went to her room with her daughter, who prepared her for the proposed examination.

After questioning Mrs. Keyser as to symptoms, Dr. Brigham proceeded to an examination in the region of the heart, and the deceased exhibited symptoms of choking. A stimulant was ordered, but before its arrival the spirit of the good lady had fled.

Fear that the doctor would pronounce the trouble heart disease probably excited Mrs. Keyser and intensified the heart's action, hastening death.

EPOCH.

The transition from long, lingering and painful sickness to robust health marks an epoch in the life of the individual. Such a remarkable event is treasured in the memory of many such instances. Hence it is that so much is heard in praise of Electric Bitters. So many feel they owe their restoration to health to the use of the Great Alternative and Tonic. If you are troubled with any disease of the Kidneys or Liver or Stomach, of long or short standing, you will surely find relief by the use of Electric Bitters. Sold at 50c and $1 per bottle at W. Pinniger's drug store.
